

GREETINGS FROM

scribLandia

Hey word nerd,

Greetings from ScribLandia! I wanted to scope out the venue for our virtual vacation, and all I can say is wow!

The Scriblandia hotel is a place like no other. The people who run it are awesome and the place practically oozes inspiration.

I wish I could tell you more, but it's just something you'll have to discover for yourself. Hope you'll join me for this unique creative experience!

Until then, keep writing and keep being awesome!

Gabriela
